Woman's Club Notes

The Cary Woman's club held a board meeting on Wednesday evening. They are making arrangements for their annual luncheon and card party to be held in the village hall in the near future.

Lightning Strikes

The storm Sunday afternoon was quite severe in Cary and lightning struck a chimney on the old milk factory. The downpour was in the form of a cloud burst and farmers report some damage to grain.

strains of Lohengrin's wedding

March, played by Miss Olive Krens, the bridal party entered the church. Rev. Kuehnert was followed by the groom and his best man, George Koba of Algonquin. Darlene Miller, dainty in yellow, carrying a bouquet of pink roses and delphiniums, acted as flower girl and sang "I Love You Truly." The bride was very lovely in blue lace with white accessories and a head dress of white beads. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, baby's breath and blue forget-me-nots. The bridesmaid, Miss Lillian Riether, very pretty in a gown of pink taffeta and white accessories, carried a bouquet of pink roses, baby's breath and delphiniums. After the ceremony, the bridal party had a wedding supper at the home of the bride's parents. About 100 guests from Evanston, Chicago, Dundas, Elgin, Algonquin, Fox River Grove and Cary, gathered at the bungalow in Fox River Grove, the future home of the couple, where dancing was enjoyed and at midnight, refreshments were served.

Social Club Meets

The Cary Social held a picnic in Opatry's Grove, Fox River Grove, on Thursday. A picnic dinner was served by the members and their children. A business meeting was held after which bunco was played and prizes were awarded.

plenic was held in Crabtree's woods on Sunday.

Each family brought their own dinner which was enjoyed picnic style at noon. Various games were played and prizes were awarded. The ice cream social given on the lawn of Mrs. Dora Jocks, for the benefit of the M.E. Church on Saturday night was a success. About 1000 people enjoyed the picnic given at Opatry's Grove, on Saturday by the Williamson Candy Co. of Chicago. Thirteen motor coach buses, besides private cars brought the crowd from Chicago.

The Cary Women held their monthly meeting at the village hall Monday evening.

The monthly meeting will be held at Capron, on Monday evening, July 19. Mrs. Charles Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Allen attended the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Cook at Huntley Tuesday afternoon.

"Sequoia" Showing Friday; "This Is My Affair" to Be Screened

The most amazing revelation of nature's intimate secrets ever attempted for the screen is to be seen in "Sequoia," a startling outdoor drama featuring Jean Parker, request showing for one day only on Friday, July 16.

"America's minute men in white," the hospital internees, are the heroes of "Internee Can't Take Money," the drama with Barbara Stanwyck and Joel McCrea, which comes to the Catlow theatre Saturday.

The story tells of a young doctor, McCrea, who is forced to re-

DOLORES MAE WENDT

GEORGE WAYNE SKINNER

GEORGE WAYNE SKINNER, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Skinner, 200 W. Station street, is one year old today, Thursday. He greeted the cameraman with outstretched arms, perhaps thinking what a pleasant occasion his anniversary will be.

DOLORES MAE WENDT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wendt, 118 S. Hough street, will be four years old Sunday, July 18. Dolores is a friendly youngster with blond hair and blue eyes. She looks forward to a happy time on her birthday. One of Dolores' chief delights is that of playing with George Wayne.

In a scene with Beery and Una Merkel, Healy unaccountably shuffled his feet every time he saw his comedy lines, and the camera being close it threw him off focus. "I just don't seem to be able to help doing it," bewailed Healy. "Take off your shoes," demanded Beery. Healy, wonderfully, did so. Beery nailed the shoes to the stage floor in the correct position. "Now get your feet into them and just try to shuffle," remarked Beery. The idea worked.
