Ribbons Are Given Girls for Summer Home Project Work

Gardens and Other Undertakings Judged for Merit Thursday

Blue, red and white ribbons were awarded to Barrington school girls last Thursday and Friday who had home economics projects entered for achievement day.

Blue ribbons were given for the best project work. Red ribbons were given for work that was highly commendable but not deserving of blue ribbons. White ribbons were awarded for good projects that showed care on the part of the girls but needed more development.

The girls brought their summer project reports to the school gymnasium Thursday to be exhibited and graded. Projects that were not movable were graded in the morning when the home project board consisting of Mrs. R. D. Wells, Mrs. Reuben Plagge and Mrs. E. T. Schutt, visited the homes. All the other projects were graded by the same committee in the gymnasium.

A playlet illustrating project work was written and presented by the following girls: Eva McDowell, Sylvia Ost, Grace Dietrick, Margaret Ann Sheeley, Shirley Bergeron, Eleanor Nightengale, Elizabeth Wolthausen, Christine McLaren, Jean Wolsolant, Betty Lee Schreiber, Charlotte Wells, and Constance Fillion.

Refreshments were served to the girls, mothers and visitors by a special committee composed of Mrs. Evelyn Boyd, Ruth Droyer, Ruby Anderson, Alice Anderson, and Constance Fillion.

Report Good Start in Barrington Town on Tax Collections

Property Owners Will Have Another Week to Pay Locally

In spite of the tax rate increase in Barrington township, which tends to discourage payment of taxes, receipts have been fairly encouraging, according to Ben A. Schroeder, deputy collector.

At the present rate of collection, Mr. Schroeder expects to have between $15,000 and $20,000 collected by Saturday. His office is established in the show room of the Brewer Motor Sales, 202 S. Cook street.

The books will have to be turned back to the county treasurer, Horace G. Lindheimer, July 24. During the next ten days, owners of personal property and real estate in the township will have the opportunity of paying their taxes here—a great convenience. They will be able to pay the 1936 taxes.

Visit Freeport
The annual Women's Missionary convention of the Illinois branch of the Evangelical church will be held at Oakdale Park camp grounds, Freeport, from Thursday afternoon to Sunday. The following women from the Salem church are attending: Mrs. W. A. Stauffer, secretary; Mrs. S. J. Landwer and Mrs. J. C. Cadwallader, delegates; Mrs. H. L. Melners, representing the Mission band; and Mrs. V. D. Hawley, secretary of the Missionary oratorical contests.

Critically Ill
Mrs. I. E. Landwer, who was taken to the hospital in Elgin Tuesday, was reported as critically ill early Thursday morning. She has been in poor health for several months.

Ice Cream Social
The Ladies Aid society of the St. Matthew church will hold an ice cream social Friday evening on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Nightengale, 131 W. Russell street.
