

"Parnell," Starring Gable and Loy, Is Week-End Feature

"The Go-Getter" to Open at Catlow Tonight for Two-Day Run

Although both George Brent and Anita Louise have been under contract to Warner Bros. studios for several years, they never met until shortly before they began their co-starring assignment in the production, "The Go-Getter," which will be shown at the Catlow theatre beginning Thursday for two days.

Their first scene, photographed only a few moments before the picture was made, shows the two young people in a room which had been to show five times before the picture was made. The picture is a comedy beginning Thursday for two days.

The popular threesome of the Charles E. Melford production, "Windy" ride side by side again in the latest of their screen adventures, "North of the Rio Grande," the outdoor romance picture, which will be shown at the Catlow Saturday, in real life they are William Boyd, Russell Hayden and George Hayes.

"Double featured Saturday with 'Worth of the Rio Grande' is 'She Had to Eat,' with Jack Haley, Rochelle Hudson, Arthur Trochee and Eugene Pausette.

When the United States navy established its base at Queens-town, Ireland, during the World war, it was unknowingly providing a future headache for the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer research department.

"One of the most important and impressive sequences in 'Parnell,' co-starring Clark Gable and Myrna Loy, and opening at the Catlow Sunday, shows the arrival of Charles Stewart Parnell at Queens-town, now Cobh, in 1880.

Previous to the war, Queens-town had remained virtually unchanged, but the navy gave the Irish seaport an entirely new skyline, with erection of numerous buildings to house the personnel, wireless towers and docking facilities.

It was only after several months of intensive research, and the discovery of old photographs, sketches and prints that Queens-town could be reconstructed as it was 54 years ago.

Tommy Robert Young and Florence Rice for the third time, "Married Before Breakfast," comes to the Catlow Tuesday.

As Tom Wakefield, a care-free young inventor, Young becomes ensnared in a series of laugh-provoking adventures with Kitty Brent, played by Miss Rice. Barnet Parker, as Young's valet, is responsible for much of the comedy.

Double featured with "Married Before Breakfast" is "California," starring Ricardo Cortez and Marjorie Weaver.

The most famous cavalry charge in history is re-enacted in "The Charge of the Light Brigade," starring Errol Flynn and Olivia de Havilland—which comes to the Catlow Wednesday for one day only.
