Perfect Night as Crowd Sees Water Carnival at Pool

Boys freestyle relay—J. Grueling, capt. W. Long, G. Whitcomb, C. Church.

Watermelon scramble, boys—Billy Long and J. Grueling.

Watermelon scramble, girls—Marjorie Muir and Mary Edith Parke.

Donald Barnett, assistant to D. Melville Carr of the Chicago chapter of the American Red Cross, gave a brief talk on water safety and the principal causes of drowning, then demonstrated various devices used in rescue work.

Miss Josephine Parke demonstrated rescue work with a surf board and also the fun to be derived from its use in sports.

The program was brought to a close by a water ballet, one of the most fascinating aquatic features of water programs. Girls who took part in the ballet, enthusiastically applauded by the audience because of its rhythmic beauty, were Jane Marie Carnutt, Polly Ann Brooke, Ellen Ralache, Eleanor Nightingale, Mary Jane Hargrave, Lorraine Grom, Marjorie Muir, June Mitchell, Phyllis Stout, Lorelei Langendorf, Carol Gardner, Beverly Bell and Ellen Jensen. Members of the ballet presented flowers to their coach, Miss Parke, immediately preceding their performance.

At the close of the program, prizes were awarded to winners of the various events and refreshments were served to all contestants.
