

'Super Sleuth' Is Week-End Feature at Catlow Theatre

"Wee Willie Winkie," Starring Shirley Temple, Opens Wednesday

Mrs. Deede goes to town tonight. Check up another outstanding success for lovely Jean Arthur who shares stellar honors with Edward Arnold in the new and smart "Easy Living," the comedy which opened last night at the Catlow theatre.

Never has the charming blonde been more vivacious, sophisticated, merry and pert. And never has she appeared in such gorgeous attire—over $100,000 worth of finery, including a beautiful sable coat valued at $50,000. It's the coat which makes the plot of "Easy Living," and which wins her handsome Ray Milland for a husband and the how why just about make up the ultimate in smart motion picture entertainment.

John Howard plays the leading role in "Let Them Live," which comes to the Catlow Saturday. Biggest earlier success was in "Lost Horizon." Also appeared in "Talent Is the Word for Carrie," "Goat the Rich," "12 Hours By Air," and "Annapolis Farewell." For the first time in their long screen careers, Bert Wheeler and Bob Woolsey will be seen as hoary-headed old men, one with a long white beard and the other with a goatee.

Their current RKO Radio comedy, "On Again—Off Again," runs enough reels to find them doddering old men at the climax of the picture.

Marjorie Lord, Patricia Wilder, Esther Blair, Paul Harvey and Russel Hicks have featured roles in "On Again—Off Again," playing Saturday night on a double feature bill with "Let Them Live." A fantastic version of the police "line-up" takes place in "Super Sleuth," co-starring Jack Oakie and Ann Sothern, when Oakie, as an amateur detective, tries to identify a murderer by his voice.

Eduardo Cannel, Alan Bruce, Edgar Kennedy, John Woodbury, Bradley Page, Paul Guilfoyle and Willie Best appear in the featured supporting roles in "Super Sleuth," appearing Sunday and Monday.

An exciting trip along the Atlantic City Boardwalk is given an audience who view "Meet the Missus," in which Helen Broderick and Victor Moore have the top spots, and which comes to the Catlow Tuesday.

The long expanse of beach, the army of wheel chairs, the miles of concessions and amusement booths and the steel pier with its score of attractions and a large hotel are the comedy's back-grounds.

Double featured with "Meet the Missus" is "Melody for Two," with James Melton, Patricia Ellis, Marie Wilson, and Dick Purcell. Marking the beginning of a new phase in Shirley Temple's screen career, "Wee Willie Winkie," the famous Rudyard Kipling story of India, opens Wednesday for a three day run.
