

Hospital Romance Features Week-End Picture at Catlow

"Between Two Women" Here on Sunday-Monday; Bill "Exclusive"

Tony Martin, the young ex-St. Mary's college crooner, who, in less than a year, zoomed to ninth place in a national rating of radio's vocal favorites, has two leading women in "Sing and Be Happy," the musical coming Saturday to the Catlow theatre.

Loah Ray, also of radio renown, plays Martin's main heart interest in the picture, and Dixie Dunbar, Atlanta's mighty mite, takes the part of a performer who appears with Martin's orchestra, a harp-tormenting group that tours the country by plane.

Double featured with "Sing and Be Happy" is "Wild Money," with Edward Everett Horton, Lynn Overman, Louise Campbell and Porter Hall.

A story idea based on real life tragedy has inspired one of the most important pictures of the year.

The picture is "Between Two Women," featuring Franchot Tone, Maureen O'Sullivan and Virginia Bruce, which is showing at the Catlow Sunday and Monday.

Tone appears in one of the biggest roles of his career, a studious surgeon devoted to his work. Maureen O'Sullivan plays the girl who, although married, falls in love with Tone. Virginia Bruce won her leading role for her excellent work in "The Great Ziegfeld" and other pictures.

The actual experience of a screen star followed a movie script, dogging the actor's heels into the next picture. Soon after Edward Everett Horton had completed his role in Universal's "Oh, Doctor," the film at the Catlow Tuesday, in which he drives a racing car at more than 100 miles an hour, the screen star had an automobile accident when his car skidded off the edge of a 300 foot precipice near Lake Arrowhead, Cal., according to recent news dispatches.

In "Oh Doctor!" Horton does his breakneck auto driving to prove to a girl he loves that he has as much courage as a rival-guitar, who is a show-off at the same time. Double featured with "Oh Doctor!" is "No Man of Her Own," starring Clark Gable and Carole Lombard.

In order to obtain realism in the smashing climax of "Exclusive," the story of a newspaper war coming to the Catlow Wednesday for three days, three taxis were wrecked, more than a score of linotype machines were smashed, twelve desks were wrecked, seventeen plate glass windows were broken, a telephone switchboard demolished, five tons of molten type metal were poured out and enough type to print two standard sized newspapers were scattered over the scene.

The cast of "Exclusive" is headed by Fred MacMurray, Frances Farmer and Charlie Ruggles, and includes Lloyd Nolan, Lee Bowman, Ralph Morgan and many others.

Winifred Record Married Saturday in Parents' Garden

BARRINGTON HILLS.—Miss Winifred Record, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Record, was married to Harold Steinbaugh of Pontiac, Mich., last Saturday at 12 o'clock noon, the Rev. Mr. Eagle of the Methodist Episcopal church, Barrington, reading the marriage service.

The bride and her attendants were in dark wine shades and carried garden flowers in rich autumn coloring. The decorations were almost entirely gaidioli from the Record gardens.

The bridal party included two bridesmaids, Miss Elaine Hogen-son of Hinsdale and Miss Edith Work of Barrington, both old school friends of Miss Record, and the best man, Donald Steinbaugh, brother of the groom.

Mrs. W. H. Hammond of Kenilworth played the Mendelssohn wedding march as the guests preceded the bride party to the colorful and flower full Record garden, where the ceremony was performed. A wedding breakfast followed and the guests were all old time and close friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Steinbaugh left immediately for Nashville, Tenn., and a short wedding trip through the picturesque Smoky Mountains. They will be at home in Pontiac, Mich., after the 20th.

Mrs. Steinbaugh's mother, Mrs. Ota Steinbaugh, his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Blaylock of Pontiac, and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Steinbaugh, of Nashville, were the out-of-town guests.

Miller-Head Nuptials

Another wedding on Saturday interested Barrington Hills persons—that of Miss Virginia Miller and Edwin Read Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Read, of Barrington.

The marriage hour was 8:30 Saturday evening. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Olive Beaupre Miller, 239 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago.

It was an all white wedding; the four bridesmaids and maid of honor carried red geraniums against their white gowns. The bride was all in white carrying lilies of the valley.

Two ushers and the best man completed the wedding party. The bride and groom have gone to Santa Fe, New Mexico, for a short time, after which they will be at home in Chicago on the near north side.

On Thursday night of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Read gave the groom's dinner for 22 of his men friends at their Barrington home, and on Saturday night a dinner for the bridal party at the Drake followed the rehearsal.

Tour Gardens

The Junior garden club met Wednesday morning at 10:30 at Barrington Hills Country club and then went in a group to visit some of the gardens of members, after which they went to Mrs. J. Cunningham's for a picnic luncheon.

Personals

Mrs. Robert Work went to Lake Forest Monday for the regular meeting of the Garden Club of Illinois. The meeting was held at the Onwentsia Golf club.

Mrs. Robert Hoffman gave a luncheon Monday for a few Chicago friends and also a few Barrington friends.

Mrs. Frank Ricketta of Charleston, Ill., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Andrew Dahlstrom, for a few days.

Mrs. Schuyler Thurber, who has been in the east for the greater part of the summer, is at home again.

Mrs. Frank Payne suffered a slight injury a week ago and has been in the Evanston hospital for a few days.

Friends of Miss Mary Grubbs are glad to hear of her continued improvement after the serious accident which occurred last Saturday night in which both she and her fiance, Hugh Seyfarth of Highland Park, were severely injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Potter Smith are having a few guests in for dinner next Saturday night.

The younger group enjoyed a dancing party at the Pettigill home last Saturday night, with the young daughter of the household, Miss Laura Pettigill, as hostess.

The Samuel Rowes are at home again after a month at Harbor Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Mead and sons arrive home this week end. They have spent the summer at Oak Bluffs on Cape Cod.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Eustace are home again after a month in England. Miss Mary Capper, Mrs. Eustace's sister, came with them—her summer having been spent in the Scandinavian country.

Mrs. Robert Work had a short visit last week from her cousin, John Patterson, of New York. He was accompanied by his friend, Prince Michael Gallatin. Mr. Patterson is a well-known singer.

Miss Billee White has been entertaining Miss Maree Kahler of New York for the past two weeks. Miss White has gone to St. Paul to attend the wedding of a friend. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark have gone also and from St. Paul will go on to Canada for a week's vacation.

Mrs. A. F. Reichmann invited the Grayslake Garden club to be her guests last Tuesday and entertained them by showing her slides of flowers and gardens.

"Amen," Hebrew Word
"Amen" is a Hebrew word, meaning "certainly," or "truly." It was carried over into other languages in renderings of Bible passages, as in Psalms 106:48, "And let the people say, Amen"—and then came to be used in similar connections, in formal creeds and confessions, in prayers, and so on.
