The Young Women's Missionary society of the Methodist church will sponsor a bake sale at the Brewer Motor Sales company, 202 S. Cook street, Saturday morning, beginning at 10 o'clock. Members of the group have arranged to have a pleasant variety of delicacies on hand for the sale, it was reported.

Illinois Conference to Hold Mission on September 20 and 21

The opening session of the Farther With Christ Mission, sponsored by the Illinois conference, will be held at the First Evangelical church in Aurora on Monday evening, September 20. Rev. W. A. Stauffer, pastor of the Salem Evangelical church, and a member of the church members plan to attend several of the sessions.
The mission will continue Tuesday morning and afternoon, September 21.
Bishop J. S. Stamm of Harrisburg, Pa.; Bishop C. H. Stauffer of Kansas City, Mo., and Bishop E. W. Prastorius of St. Paul, Minn., are included in the list of outstanding church heads to attend the gatherings.
Rev. Philip Beucher of Streator, former pastor in Barrington, who was to have been a speaker on the program will be unable to attend the sessions because of illness.

Camera and Needlework Fans to Have Exhibit Booths at Festival

Camera fans, both still and motion picture, will be given an opportunity to display their talent at the Fall festival to be held October 5-9 under the sponsorship of the Barrington Lions club. A very interesting exhibit has been promised Dr. Kleiawachter by the Eastman Kodak company. The concern has agreed to furnish copies of the prize winning pictures entered in the national newspaper snapshots contest.
It is also planned to have an exhibit of unusual photographic scenes of automobile accidents compiled by the Illinois highway department.
Instructions for those desiring to enter pictures in the exhibit were also completed this week. It is necessary to have the name and address of the exhibitor on the back of each photograph in order to assure its being returned.
Still pictures may be brought to the office of the Barrington Review where they will be collected.

and turned over to the committee. Those having motion pictures of interest may contact Harold Ankus, 119 E. Main street, who will be in charge of that detail. He will arrange for the showing of different films each night. Positive pictures of single motion picture frames may be entered in the contest.
Another interesting exhibit that is in the process of organization is that of needlework, featuring both quilts and bedspreads. Complete details of this are not available this week but it is expected the booth will be handled by the home economics class of Barrington public high school, under the supervision of Miss Margaret Everett.
It was pointed out by committee workers that the success of both exhibits will depend largely on the efforts of the general public in entering their work.

Library News

Borrowers are being re-registered in the Barrington public library at present and all card holders are asked to call at the library and renew their cards. A number of new books have been added to the shelves during the summer, and new improvements are being made in the library room. A new ceiling has been added and indirect lighting replaces the old fixtures.
Book circulation has already shown a marked increase, although the fall season is hardly on its way. An invitation is extended to newcomers to take out membership in the Barrington public library, and to former borrowers to resume their use of the library.
