

"You Can't Have Everthing" Here Sunday at Catlow

Disney's "Academy Award Revue" on Twin Bill and Matinee Saturday

Miriam Hopkins and Joel McCrea come back to the Catlow theatre Thursday and Friday when "Woman Chases Man," a yuletide comedy, begins a two day engagement.

"Woman Chases Man" marks the fifth production in which the stars have engaged together.

Wall Disney's unbroken five year reign as king of the animated cartoon makers is fittingly symbolized in the production of the "Wall Disney Academy Award Revue," coming to the Catlow Saturday on a double feature bill.

There will be a matinee Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock with a single show, "The Academy Award Revue."

The five prize-winning cartoons, all fifty symphonies in technicolor, are "Flowers and Trees," (1932), "Three Little Pigs," (1933), "The Tortoise and the Hare," (1934), "The Orphan Kittens," (1935) and "The Country Cousin," (1936).

Double featured on the evening bill is "Silent Barriers," with Richard Arlen, Little Palmer, and Barry Mackay.

Rhythm, sweet, tremble and low-down; song hits by Gordon and Revel; scrumptious girls; a parade of personalities headed by Alice Faye, the Ritz Brothers, Don Ameche, and Rubinfot and his violin; Bying fiddles, trumpets, and crooners; dancing feet in the rain on the roof; and the innumerable over from the Ritzmaniacs, is "You Can't Have Everthing," new musical opening Sunday at the Catlow.

Two recruits from vaudeville have important roles in "Dance, Charlie, Dance," which comes Wednesday.

They are Tommy Wonder of the well-known team of Tommy and Betty Wonder, and Collette Lyons, both former headliners.

"Dance, Charlie, Dance," is the story of a small town boob, played by Stuart Erwin, who comes to New York and accidentally puts over a big Broadway show.

Double featured with "Dance, Charlie, Dance," is "Bad Guy."
