

Crosby Stars in Week-End Feature at Catlow Theatre

"Double or Nothing" Coming Sun. and Mon.; to Show "Captain Courageous"

Don Ameche is co-starred with Loreta Young in "Love Under Fire," farcical romance playing Friday and Saturday at the Catlow.

Bing Crosby croons and captivates to the strains of the strongest orchestra ever assembled in "Double or Nothing," a brilliant comedy with music which opens Sunday for two days.

It's an orchestra of some 75 musicians—and none of them plays a musical instrument! The brilliant composed entirely of human voices and has been named "The Sing Band." And yet the music supplied by this aggregation resembles the music of a full instrumental dance band so closely that it is not only impossible to tell the difference with the human ear but engineers who have studied the "sound track" of its music have been unable to discern any difference.

The Mardi Gras at New Orleans forms the rich and meretricious ground for the outstanding scenes of hilarity responsible for the great popular demand which has brought back Will Rogers in "Handy Andy" to the Catlow where it will show Tuesday.

The picture is acclaimed as the funniest the famous comedian ever made; the sequences of his madcap masquerades as "Tarsan of the Apes" at the Mardi Gras ball and executes a wild adagio dance with a little French girl rivals the peak of his comedy.

Double featured Tuesday is "Flight From Glory," with Chester Morris, Whitney Bourne, Onslow Stevens and Van Helms in the lead.

One of the great sea stories of modern literature, Rudyard Kipling's thrilling saga of the Gloucester Fishermen, comes to the Catlow screen starting Wednesday for three days as a picture of "Captain Courageous," with Freddie Bartholomew, Spencer Tracy, Lionel Barrymore and Melvyn Douglas in the leading roles.

For the first time in his screen career Freddie Bartholomew plays a wholly American boy, a wide departure from any previous role. As Harvey Cheyne he is the pampered son of a millionaire who has never known the meaning of work and worthwhile effort. Bound for Europe on a super-liner he falls overboard off the Newfoundland banks and is picked up by a fishing dory manned by Spencer Tracy, the latter playing the part of Manuel, a Portuguese fisherman. This role, the most colorful that Tracy has yet had, rivals even that of the priest in "San Francisco."

The boy is taken to the fishing schooner "We're Here," captained by Lionel Barrymore as Capt. Disko. His tale of being a mil-lionaire's son is attributed to the shock of having fallen overboard. He is put to work and gradually his respectability begins. The hardy, honest Gloucester fishermen make a man of him.

Legion Post Will Be Host to Public Gathering at Cary

CARY.—The Raymond Wascher post of the American Legion will be host to outstanding members of the department at an open meeting to be held in the Cary gymnasium on Monday, Oct. 25.

Dr. J. G. Flood, post commander, has secured the services of Taylor E. Wilhelm, state's attorney for LaSalle county and a resident of Ottawa, who will be the main speaker.

Other speakers expected to be present are Carl Mantz, district commander of Dundee, and William Munds, department adjutant of Bloomington, who is expected to be present or to send a representative.

The Cary Municipal band will furnish music.

Injured Foot
Mrs. P. Fitzgerald met with a painful accident Saturday when a log of wood she was about to put into the furnace slipped and fell, crushing and bruising the toes of her right foot.

Funeral Held Monday
Mrs. John Adams of Rowson's bridge died at her residence after a lingering illness Friday. Funeral services were held Monday at 88. Peter and Paul church in Cary with Father P. Kilderry officiating. Burial was in St. John cemetery.

Hudak-Alexis Nuptials
Ludwig Hudak and Miss Mildred Alexis of Fox River Grove were married at the St. Peter and Paul church Sunday afternoon. Father P. Kilderry officiated, using the double ring ceremony. A reception was held at the Brandt tavern in Fox River Grove.

Federation Meeting
The McHenry County Federation of Women's clubs met at the Harvard Community high school Wednesday, Oct. 13. Mrs. Herbert Smith of Marengo gave a book review on "Seven Who Fied," by Frederick Prokosch. Mrs. W. W. Meyers of Harvard had charge of the music. Dr. Kunde of the state education committee, speaker of the afternoon, spoke on "The Old Made New." A rummage sale sponsored by the club will be given in the near future.

Personals
The Cary Social club held its monthly meeting in the council rooms of the village hall Thursday evening. After the business meeting, an old time Halloween party, with games, prizes and delicious refreshments, was enjoyed by those present.

The C. C. club was entertained in the home of Mrs. A. Kerch Wednesday afternoon. Bunco was played, prizes awarded and refreshments served.

The Tuesday evening bridge club was entertained in the home of Mrs. Joseph Diane.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Parker entertained three couples at a "fish fry" dinner at their home on East Main street Friday evening.

The nieces and nephews of Frank Shepard gave a surprise party in his honor on his birthday Friday evening. The time was spent playing cards, after which refreshments brought by the guests were served.

Little Elizabeth Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowe, entertained 13 little guests in honor of her third birthday. Games were played and light refreshments served. Elizabeth received useful and beautiful gifts.

Mrs. Frank Jellinek attended a miscellaneous shower given in honor of Miss Marie Klapper at the home of F. J. Cerny of Fox River Grove Sunday afternoon. The Misses Marie and Mildred Cerny were the hostesses.

Ben Frisch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frisch Jr., returned to his work in Chicago Monday after three weeks at home due to a sprained ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Newbold returned Monday from their wedding trip to Davenport, Ia.

In Charge of Stage Properties of Lake Forest College Play

Misses Vivian and Ruth Reed, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Reed, Barrington, are in charge of stage properties for the production "Ah Wilderness," to be presented by the Garrick club of Lake Forest college October 27 and 28.

The Garrick club, student dramatic organization, presents five plays each year, all of the construction and other technical work being done by students. For this production the stage crew is making a careful investigation of the styles of wall paper popular in the year 1906, the time in which the scene of the play is laid.

FUN & FACTS

NO. 42 Barrington, Ill., Thursday, Oct. 21, 1937 VOL. 49

Can anybody tell us how to make three high pressure salesmen understand that when we say "No" we mean "No"?

If you're needing milk bottle caps, cream can, strainers, or any other dairy supplies just drop in and state your needs—we have 'em all!

We don't mean to preach but we like this slogan: "If you drink, don't drive. If you drive, don't drink."

Full plowing is a great thing all right—that's been proved. But it's just as successful as the plow you use. You can depend on a McCormick-Deering tractor plow for any kind of plowing. Come in and examine 'em.

Would it interest you to know that if the earth were flattened the entire surface would be covered with water three feet deep?

A real for sure way to keep your rooms comfortable fall days is with Perfection Kerosene heater; they sure throw the heat.

Jr. Lieutenant (roaring with rage) "Who told you to put those Evers on the table?"

Howard: "The Commander, 'Str.' Jr. Lieut.: "Proty, aren't they?"

Hot water for the bath! What a joy it is! What a convenience! Let a Bock Oil Burning Hot Water Heater provide this luxury. We have full information.

A Barrington man has a fine working agreement with his wife. In the morning, she does what she wants. In the afternoon he does what she wants.
