A NEW TYPE CAR HEATER
"South Wind"
GIVES IMMEDIATE HEAT AND TWICE AS MUCH
Car owners have long wanted a heater that would produce heat quickly—large volumes of it. Stewart-Warner has created a unit that is independent of engine temperatures—one that has its own combustion chamber—and uses very small quantities of the excellent fuel already at hand—gasoline.
A large volume of heat in from 1½ to 3 minutes—and perfect control, and safety under any conditions, are assured. The South Wind is turned on and off by a light pull or push on the control button... its operation is entirely automatic... and it is economical, costing considerably less than 1c an hour for completely satisfactory driving comfort, even on coldest days. Ready to install $19.95—nothing else to buy.
